President & Vice President Messages

Dear SBAA Members,

This is a quick note from your President, Cathie Smith, to thank Nancy for the excellent job she is doing filling in for me with her Vice President's Messages. Thanks too to Jacqui and other members of the Board who have been so generous helping me and shuttling me about.

Since February, I have been dealing with a serious inflammation in my eyes which has affected my ability to read, type, draw, and drive. I have started seeing a Retina specialist who's attitude is "Let's solve this problem" so, I am hopeful.

Hi everyone, Nancy Hull here standing in for Cathie Smith,

It was exciting to see the members' participation in the August 31 ingathering for September's SBAA show at the Faulkner; 97 entries were received, of which juror Nathan Vonk accepted 82. See awards on the next page. Many thanks go to the ingathering volunteers – Jacqui Bravo, Jim Felland, Bill Hull, Mary Kelly, Susan Price, Frances Reighley, Linda Roletti, Patti Post, and Cathie Smith – for their time and efforts. Thanks also to Roger Balabanow for his curating and hanging the show; it looks fabulous. And SBAA is especially grateful to juror Nathan Vonk for sharing his expertise and donating his juror's fee. To all of you who retrieved your work from the August show, and picked up art eliminated from the September show, on time, I am very grateful!

Although the ingathering went very smoothly, a few hiccups call for a some reminders:

- SBAA requires that art entered at the Faulkner has NOT BEEN ACCEPTED PREVIOUSLY IN A SBAA JURIED FAULKNER SHOW; pieces previously accepted (we do keep list) will be eliminated, with no refund. So, please keep track of where and when your art has been accepted in a SBAA Faulkner juried show.
- Please pay attention to the times and dates of takedowns and ingatherings on the reminder card, in the newsletter, and in the email blasts.

Should all else fail, for the rest of 2021, SBAA's ingatherings and takedowns at the Faulkner are at the same time on a Tuesday morning from 10:15—12:30, with retrieval of unaccepted work in the afternoon.

- We don't want you to be ineligible to enter the next show, so make sure that the phone number you list on your entry form has a functional voice mail box (e.g., it's not full) and that you check it starting at around 2 pm. All art must be retrieved by 4 pm. I am sure you wouldn't want to burden a volunteer with lugging your art home. SBAA does NOT STORE ART AT G113 because of the burden it would place on our volunteers and lack of storage space at Gallery 113.

Some of you have asked about when we will have First Thursday receptions for our Faulkner shows. At this time, the library is not allowing food or beverage to be consumed indoors. When Covid restrictions ease and volunteers come forward to help plan and assist with the receptions, we will resume.

On Saturday, September 11, we resumed our quarterly juried show at 1919 State St. Considering that this show has been postponed multiple times so the interior walls could be painted, there was enthusiastic participation. Of the 49 entries, juror Phyllis Doyon accepted 45 and made the following awards: 1st Place went to Louise Komp for her watercolor titled Truth, Kimberly Pratt received 2nd Place for Maestro, a mixed media/resin work, and Jerilynne Nibbe received 3rd for her woodcut/Chine collé Last of the Season. Honorable mentions were awarded to Linda Roletti, Frances Reighley, and Francine McOwen. Thank you to volunteers Linda Roletti, Mary Kelly and Louise Komp, show hanger Michael Mead, and to all who participated and cheerfully picked up eliminated pieces on time.
