Vice President's Message

Hi everyone, Nancy Hull here
standing in for Cathie Smith,

At the ingathering for the October show at the Faulkner Gallery, juror Lynn Adams accepted all seventy-one entries. Patricia Post was awarded First Place for her mixed media entry titled Spark. Cheryl Ambrecht was awarded Second for her oil painting A Walk to Pelican, and Third went to Ann Raleigh for her mixed media entry titled California 2021. Frances Reighley, Louise Komp, and Mary Gold received Honorable Mentions. I was traveling at the time of this ingathering, so am grateful to all the volunteers who went the extra mile to cover for me at this event.

Do you have artist friends who have been waiting to apply for membership in the Santa Barbara Art Association? After a hiatus of two years, the SBAA will be jurying in new members on Saturday, October 16. Please encourage your friends to participate by bringing three pieces of their art – gallery ready and all in the same medium (preferably the same genre) – to the Faulkner Gallery from 10:15—12:30 on that day. Jurying will occur in the early afternoon, and results will be available at around 3pm when they must return to pick up their artwork. Details on How to Join can be found on our website, www.sbartassoc.org under the Information tab.

Darlene Roker has joined the SBAA Board of Directors and will act as liaison between SBAA and Gallery 113. She is also maintaining the SBAA Facebook page.

SBAA has one more juried show in November and one non-juried show in December at the Faulkner this year that will give our newly juried members a chance to participate at this fabulous downtown venue. If you are entering art in those shows, please keep in mind that Faulkner sales are presently processed by Gallery 113 by contract. As Gallery 113 is staffed by SBAA volunteers, it is in your best interest, if you exhibit at the Faulkner and hope to sell from there, that you get trained by Manny Lopez on Monday afternoons to host Gallery 113. It is tempting to think members exhibiting at Gallery 113 are responsible for making sure the Gallery's open every day to take care of selling your work from the Faulkner too. But please remember that these are your fellow SBAA members and friends whom you are expecting to be available to sell your Faulkner artwork, and they would be grateful for your help. Gallery 113 has 19 shifts without gallery hosts for the month of October!

To those of you who have been able to travel this fall, we look forward to seeing your travel-inspired artwork in our next shows. Thank you all for your participation,

The Conversation by Mary Gold

Next jurying for membership in Gallery Los Olivos is Sunday, February 27. This jurying will include wall art, as well as selected pedestal art and fine art jewelry. We welcome both contemporary and traditional styles. A confirmed reservation is required, and we encourage interested artists to get in touch soon since we'll start finalizing the applicant list 4-6 weeks beforehand. For information and to apply, go www.gallerylosolivos.com and click on Artist Submissions.

Show Dates: November 2 - 26

Reception: Thursday, November 4, 5 - 8

Artists of the Month: Suemae Willhite

Suemae Willhite draws inspiration from the beauty and tranquility of traditional Chinese subjects like pines, clouds, and waterfall landscapes. She employs delicate fine lines and dynamic brush strokes to evoke quietude and sit among the white clouds in her paintings. Suemae was privileged to study new techniques with Master Lee at the Taiwan National Museum of Fine Arts in the Summers of 2018 & 2019. She is grateful to be living her dream as a full-time artist.
