If you have questions email SBAAdata@aol.com or call Jacqui at 805-564-7019

PRESIDENT CATHIE SMITH'S MESSAGE

It is hard to believe that we are almost to June and a reminder that we have a June show at the Faulkner – our last scheduled show there until December. The ingathering is June 1st. Just a heads up that the Anapamu Street entrance to the Faulkner will be blocked so visitors will have to access the show from the back door off Anacapa Street or through La Arcada or the Art Museum.

June marks the end of our fiscal year at which time you will all be receiving your SBAA membership renewals in the mail. While your financial support is essential to our viability and donations to the Student Art Fund at renewal time are greatly appreciated, please give some thought to volunteering your time or skills to support the running of SBAA ... Many hands do make light work!

Be sure to read the message from Nancy Hull as there are big changes coming to the role that the Faulkner Gallery will be playing in the art scene of Santa Barbara. We will update you via email as soon as we know more.

VICE PRESIDENT NANCY HULL'S MESSAGE

The quarterly show changeover, April 29, at 1919 State had higher than usual participation, thanks to our newest members. Of the 70 entries, juror Megan Stirling accepted 53 and made the following awards: 1st place went to Frances Reighley for her oil on canvas titles A Lovely Light; Nancy Freeman received 2nd for her oil on canvas California Beautiful; Catherine Jenks was awarded 3rd for Soul's Journey, an oil on panel; honorable mentions were awarded to Cathie Smith for her graphite on paper titled San Marcos Foothills and to Patti Handfinger for Through the Fields to the Sea, an acrylic on panel. Thank you to all who participated in this show and to you all who retrieved art – by the end of the day - which was declined by the juror and that which had been in the last show; not a single piece had to be brought home! 'Special thanks to our volunteers who were kept busy all day – Mary Kelly, Louise Komp, Andrea Tuzikas, and Terry Wimmer. As of May 9, 2 pieces from this show had already sold!

Our next juried show will be at the Faulkner, ingathering on June 1. We will have both side galleries in addition to the main gallery; one small gallery will be set aside for our newest members, who will be able to enter a 4th piece for free to hang there.

Please remember to keep an eye on the Library's online schedule; if you have signed up to host the gallery, take a look to confirm that nothing's been scheduled that will prevent you from entering the gallery.

Many of you have already heard through the grapevine that the Library will implement some changes in the coming fiscal year. One major change is a substantial increase in the gallery rental fee; others under consideration include the Library handling all art sales for a 20% commission, staff being present for First Thursday, the rental for the First Thursday reception being included in the gallery rental fee, and a requirement of all artists with art for sale furnish a Santa Barbara business license. These plans are still developing, and no doubt you have some questions. Please come to the Q & A session at the Faulkner on June 6, from 6 to 7 PM.

SHOWS PREVIOUSLY LISTED

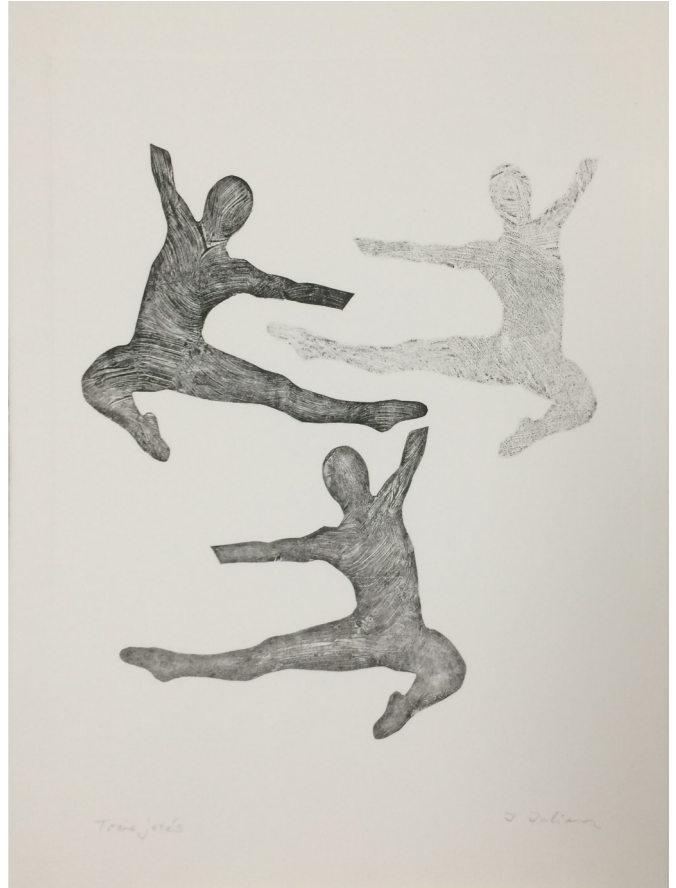

Kathi Scarminach has a solo exhibition called Things Are Going to Get Easier showing primarily her abstract work, but also her Mokuhanga prints. It's at Elsie's Tavern for the months of May and June. Elsie's is a funky grungy neighborhood bar that hosts art exhibitions that change monthly. CASH only here and this exhibition will be more of a party than a stuffy art show. Every wall is painted a different color and there is a pool table, ping pong machine and a Pac Man retro video arcade game. Plenty to do besides admire her artwork. Mention that you are there for her art show and get $1.00 off your drink. Kathi is donating the proceeds to the UCSB Thriving Initiative where she facilitates art and writing workshops as a resource towards healing.

<https://www.thethrivinginitiative.org>

Lisa Skyheart Marshall will welcome visitors to her Ojai art studio on June 10, between 10-5 at 1134 S. Rice Rd., Ojai, CA. Please go see her new work as well as her fine art prints and cards. Lisa works in watercolor+ink, and her paintings reflect her imagination and love of nature. Other artists in her immediate neighborhood will also have open studios that day. Lisa will have maps available at her studio.

Nadya Brown will have two prints from her While Walking on the Mesa series in the Santa Barbara Printmakers' upcoming show at the Ojai Art Center in May and June.

Barbara Cronin Hershberg is showing with other members of the SB Visual Artists at the SB Tennis Club from through May 30. She has six pieces in the show including acrylic and mixed media. She was juried into the current show at the Goleta Valley Library with her piece Waltz of the Flowers. Tic Tac Toe is displayed in the exhibit at the Carpinteria Arts Center.

NEWS FROM GALLERY 113

On April 1st, the newly formed board of directors held their first general meeting to introduce themselves and to give members an opportunity to share ideas for promoting the gallery. The second general meeting will be held sometime in the Fall. The meeting was well attended and every available sitting surface was utilized. The following are some ideas that were proposed:

- Make sure hotels have the Santa Barbara Gallery Guide brochure available to their guests.
- Offer a workshop on how to promote our own and other artist's work. (Denise's husband will do a free workshop on this topic in the near future.)
- Meet with the Downtown Association to see if there could be a trolley run with an art focus. It would travel to the Galleries in La Cumbre and end in the La Arcada area so that visitors could explore Gallery 113, 10 West, Sullivan Goss and others. (Barbara C. Hershberg met with Daniel at the Downtown Association last week to propose the idea. She is waiting for a response.)
- All artists should reach out to friends when they are showing and invite them to visit the gallery. It is important to do our own publicity on social media and via email.

Hot off the Press: Christine, our Business Manager, will be switching us over to Square. It is very user friendly and charges less than our current credit card company.

Minutes of Gallery 113 Board will be stored in a binder next to the desk.
