VICE PRESIDENT NANCY HULL'S MESSAGE

At SBAA's ingathering for our annual December non-juried show, 175 entries were received. Pieces were priced at $500 or less (or NFS), it's an eclectic and exciting show. Huge thanks to our larger-than-usual dedicated group of volunteers, the show was hung and labeled by 4:00: it couldn't have been done without Roger Balabanow, Ed Barger, Sophia Beccue, Ruth Birdt, Jacqui Bravo, Mary Kelly, Fred Lehto, Susan Price, Glen Serbin, Brian Tepper and Terry Wimmer.

Mary Kelly and Jacqui Bravo stepped in for Cathie Smith to organize the First Thursday reception, presenting festive tables filled with holiday treats and beverages, while the Dixie Daddies provided Dixieland jazz tunes for the obvious enjoyment of all our visitors.

Looking ahead to the new year, mark your show calendar for the next 1919 State ingathering (and takedown of the old show), slated for February 3. Also, online entries have begun for the art show at the Santa Barbara International Orchid Show, with the ingathering scheduled for Wednesday, March 6. ENTRY FOR THIS SHOW WILL BE ONLINE ONLY – NO LATE OR DAY-OF ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED. This show is open to all artists, so please invite your non-SBAA artist friends to submit entries to this show; all art must be orchid-themed, and submissions are limited to 2-dimensional work only. Please go to the SBIOS website for detailed information and the link to submit.

Lastly, our next members only Faulkner show is tentatively scheduled for April 1. Also, April will bring the next opportunity to apply for SBAA membership, date to be finalized.

Thank you all for your participation over the past year, and special thanks to those of you who've volunteered in 2023. We look forward to seeing you and your art in the coming year and wish you a new year filled with artistic inspiration.

The Human Spirit

“Two Great Themes are embedded in nearly all my work; 1) Appreciation of the world we get to inhabit, and 2) Amazement at who we are. How did this stack of 37 TRILLION cells become self aware, learn to read, to love, appreciate music, art, and fine dining? We create beauty and roads, buildings and technological wonders. This show is a celebration of our incredible human experience. “

Happy New Year

from the Gallery 113 Board of Directors

We want to thank all of our members who have helped make this transition during the past year an exciting one. Your involvement is what makes the gallery a special place to volunteer. We have a multitude of talented artists, who are also willing to help at in-gatherings, the hanging of shows, hosting, fundraising, organizing, posting on social media, and cleaning.

In the past year, we have added the sale of cards and small pieces of art, introduced Square, which is more efficient and charges less per transaction than our old credit card machine, started a daily envelope system so that our business manager can more easily keep track of our finances, and hosted a 50th Anniversary Fundraiser that brought a great deal of positive attention to Gallery 113 and unbelievable involvement from local artists. We are also excited to have so many new members participate in the gallery.

Looking ahead to January, we will be hosting a general meeting, and a separate meeting with our new website designer to help promote digital sales and support artists that would like to collaborate with her on expanding their digital presence.

Barbara Cronin Hershberg – Chairperson of the Gallery 113 Board

Featured Artist space available!

Please check the Gallery 113 web site to see what walls are still open for 2024. We have one unreserved wall in January and two in February. Please contact Katy Zappala at G113WallSpace@aol.com if you would like to schedule a show of your artworks next year.
